The Courage To Teach
For those students who are seeking to become teachers.

Teachers choose their vocation for reasons of the heart, because they care deeply about their students and their subject. Good Teachers always give heart to the students. Teaching is to guide students on an inner journey toward more truthful ways of seeing and being in the world.

Parker J. Palmer

Elementary Education
The fundamentals of an Elementary Education Program of study should support the changing and growing body of knowledge and information that is uniquely relevant to the field of educational studies. An Elementary Education program of study at its best must establish and support this philosophy and guide students in their unique voyage towards a holistic learning experience. Blackfeet Community College will support these elements by adopting the following plan of study for Elementary Education.