Student Code of Conduct (Refer to Student Handbook 2005-07)

Fundamental to the achievement of community among the members of the BCC is the recognition by all such members that each shares a responsibility to observe BCC regulations. This obligation, which is an extension of the student's responsibility to observe the law of the land, is an essential effect to participation in the academic rights afforded to members of the BCC. The following statement of policy and procedure is known as the BCC Student Conduct Code.

The following are some of the offenses outlined, but not limited to, which can lead to serious disciplinary action, including probation, suspension or expulsion from Blackfeet Community College:

1. Dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarism or knowingly furnishing false information to the college and/or in the classroom.
2. Forgery, alteration or misuse of college documents, computer programs or accounts, or records or identification.
3. Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures or other college activities; or of any other authorized activities on the college premises. Such obstruction or disruption (whether involving individual or group conduct; whether taking the form of force, trespass, seizure, occupation or obstruction of buildings, facilities or property; or the inciting of others to any disruptive conduct) is directly opposed to academic freedom and the mission statement of Blackfeet Community College.
4. Physical or verbal abuse of any person on college-owned or controlled property, or at college-sponsored functions, or conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any such person.
5. Theft of, or damage to the property of the college, any member of the college community, or campus visitor.
6. Storage or possession on campus of chemicals or materials or devices which by themselves or when in combination could be explosive, toxic, flammable, or dangerous, except as required in scientific research in faculty supervised laboratories.
7. Unauthorized entry or use of occupancy of college facilities.
8. Violation of college policies, rules or regulations concerning student organization; the use of college facilities; or the time, place and manner of meetings on college owned or controlled property.
9. Use, sale, or possession of various drugs that are deemed illegal under federal, state, and tribal laws, except as those expressly permitted by law.
10. Use, sale, or possession of intoxicating alcohol is prohibited in the buildings, at campus functions, during college sponsored events, and on the grounds or use of BCC equipment.
